NATIONAL BANK OF PORTLAND.

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT.

THIS BANK HAS ESTABLISHED IN CONNECTION with the general Banking business a SAVINGS DEPARTMENT, and will allow interest on Coin Deposits made in accordance with the conditions adopted by the Association.

In establishing a SAVINGS DEPARTMENT this Banking Association has in view the benefits to accrue to a class of persons having small sums to loan, by providing a safe place of deposit, ample security and fair rate of interest, as well as to aggregate and bring into use idle capital.

For the safety of deposits in this Bank are pledged its entire capital and resources, and also the personal liability of its Directors and Stockholders, as provided by Section 12 of the National Currency Act, approved June 3, 1864, a greater security than that given by ordinary Savings Banks. Printed copies of the conditions upon which deposits are received may be had upon application at the Bank.

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

EASTERN DATES TO NOVEMBER 7.

EASTERN STATES.

Tribute to a Soldier's Memory.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—The City Council and citizens will take steps to pay tribute of respect to the memory of General Meade.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Society of the Army of the Potomac sent a letter of condolence to the son of General Meade. The flags of the city are at half mast to-day in his respect.

Modification Asked.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Chamber of Commerce to day endorsed the resolutions of the Boston Board of Trade, asking for a modification of the President's proclamation imposing differential duty of 10 per cent. on goods carried in French ships, so as not to apply to vessels afloat at the day of the proclamation.

Accident.

KEITHSBURG, Ill., Nov. 8.—G. N. Frick, son of a well known citizen, was killed yesterday by the permanent discharge of a cannon, being fired over the Republican victory.

Riot at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—At an election held to-day in the Sixth Ward to fill a vacancy in the City Council, just before closing the polls a crowd of a thousand gathered around the corner of Wayette and Broadway streets. A party of men, mostly colored, left the crowd and proceeded about midway to Broadway, when they turned and deliberately fired upon the crowd in front of the voting place, and killed Isaac Boss, aged 18, and mortally wounded John Conway. Another boy received a flesh wound. Immediately after firing they broke and ran, when those fired into returned the shots. Some 18 or 20 shots were fired in a minute. Previous to the firing, which was wholly unexpected, no disturbance whatever occurred.

Murder of a Wife.

DOVER (N. J.), Nov. 7.—Two Italians came here this morning from New York, and going into the store of G. Bariotti one claimed his house keeper as his truant wife, and after some words he stabbed her dead, and inflicted probably a mortal wound upon Bariotti. He was arrested. There is much excitement and threats of lynching.

A Desperado.

WESTCHESTER (Pa.), Nov. 7.—George Grant, in jail sentenced to be hanged on Wednesday next, for the murder of his wife, made a desperate attempt to escape last night. He attacked and nearly killed the jailor while the latter was going his rounds. He was finally captured and ironed, but is still savage, and declares he will sell his life dearly.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Funeral of Gen. Meade.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—General Sherman has issued a general order, reviewing in a feeling manner, and defending the services of the late General Meade. General McDowell at New York has been directed to make all arrangements for his funeral, directing flags at all military posts to be displayed at half mast on that day, minute guns fired and officers to wear the usual badge of mourning. It is understood that either Brigadier General A. H. Terry, now commanding the Department of the South, or E. R. S. Canby, commanding the Department of the Columbia, will be appointed Major General in his place.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—General Sherman telegraphed to General McDowell to proceed to Philadelphia and consult Mrs. Meade in relation to arrangements for the funeral of her husband. President Grant will attend the services.

Mail Interruptions.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The Postoffice Department is in receipt of numerous reports of detentions and failures in the transportation of mails, owing to the prevalence of the horse disease. Complaints are most numerous from New England, although many come from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and some from as far west as Wisconsin.

MONTPELIER, Nov. 7.—Horses in this State are all sick. Mails, except by railroad, are nearly all suspended hence.

WEST INDIES.

Havana News.

HAVANA, Nov. 7.—Vessels dispatched to the scene of the Missouri disaster report that notwithstanding a thorough search had been made, not the slightest trace of anything belonging to the vessel could be found.

MEXICO.

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 1, via Havana Nov. 7.—The election for President of Mexico has resulted unanimously almost for Lerdo de Tejada.

Parfiro Diaz has sent his own submission to the Government, and surrenders his command in a paper dated October 23d, near Durango, and Gen. Promise has presented himself at the capital. This has made the complete pacification of the country. It is reported that President Lerdo intends to restore Diaz and Trevino to their former rank in the army.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

London Press Comments.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Presidential election in America is the principal topic of the morning papers. The prevailing sentiment is favorable to the administration. The chief subject of complimentary notice is the orderly manner in which the elections were conducted. Much surprise is expressed at the completeness of the Republican triumph.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—Slight rain last night, clearing up now.

The Seventh Day Adventists put up a large tent on Market street, and opened out to night with a grand revival.

The French National League will open a Bureau here for French immigrants, to give a temporary home, and to help to find employment.

Plans and specifications for the Union Pacific silk factory are ready for work to go on. Arrangements are made with New York dry goods merchants to take the manufactured product.

Southern Pacific trains now leave the city at 8:30 A. M. and 3:20 and 7:40 P. M.

Edward Eggleston, who has occupied the editorial chair of Hearth and Home from its foundation, will retire at the close of the present volume. He gives up the editorship of the magazine to devote himself to lecturing and writing. He will be a contributor to Hearth and Home, which will henceforth be conducted by his brother George Carey Eggleston. The new editor is said to be well qualified to fill the place of his brother, having done a large portion of the editorial work of the magazine for some time past.

The following officers of Willamette Lodge No. 15, I. O. G. T., at Oregon City, were installed last Saturday evening for the ensuing quarter: E. J. Swafford, W. C. T.; Mary Roberts, W. R. H. S.; Jennie Caruthers, W. L. H. S.; Mrs A. C. LaRoque, W. V. T.; Thomas McKinney, W. S.; Mrs. R. Bradish, W. A. S.; T. J. Spooner, W. F. S.; J. D. Locey, W. T.; John Gavin, W. M.; Sarah Bolds, W. D. LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO NOVEMBER 9.

EASTERN STATES.

Election Details.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Grant's majority in the city is 8,796. Oglesby, Republican, for Governor, has only 4,100, and Black, Liberal, for Lt. Governor, 1,300 majority in the city, the German vote having been cast nearly solid for him. There was more voting for him than even for Koerner, Liberal candidate for Governor, who is a German.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—Greeley's majority in this State will be less than 2,000. The Congressional delegation will probably stand three Republicans and three Democrats.

Grant on the Election.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—A Washington special reports the following as Grant's views on his election: His first election he considers an honor paid for his military services. The second as the nation's approval of his political administration, and the popular vindication of his personal character. Long before the Philadelphia Convention he foresaw his success against a nomination by coalitionists, and it gratified him inasmuch as it narrowed the contest to two candidates, besides the character of the opposition parties gave complete assurance of the result. He was surprised at the affright received by some Republicans at the Baltimore nomination, and was thereafter urged by political friends to make various changes in his Cabinet. Many of his friends wondered at his indifference, but one helping cause of that indifference, which was known to but few, was his knowledge of the fact that during the campaign the Republican National Central Committee had a picket in every Greeley camp of any consequence from one end of the country to the other, and knew day by day every phase of the coalition and situation as well as the coalition managers themselves.

Report of the Secretary of War.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The annual report of the Secretary of War is received. It is quite brief, and recommends the establishment of military prisons in place of the present system of sending army convicts to State penitentiaries. He renews his recommendation that extras to each regiment be disposed with as vacancies occur, and thus save $150,000 per annum. He advises raising the intellectual standard of admission at West Point, also the sale of a large number of useless arsenals in South Carolina and elsewhere, and the establishment of a moral arsenal of construction on the Atlantic slope and another on the Pacific, those arsenals with that already at Rock Island, in the Mississippi valley, would efficiently meet the wants of the service in time of need. He concludes by regretting that one sixth of the army is still detained in Southern States east of the Mississippi river, and hopes an improving social condition will soon spare that force for frontier service. He says military expenditures are on a descending scale.

Cabinet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—A Washington special says in speaking of speculations with regard to Cabinet changes, that a representation of colored men, headed by Fred Douglass and John M. Langston, the colored lawyer, are bringing a pressure to bear to secure a Cabinet appointment for one of their race.

The Washington Star last evening says a movement is already on foot to have Langston appointed Attorney General.

Horse Malady.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—The horse disease continues unabated. There was a less number of horses on the streets to-day than yesterday. Though the weather continues fine it is quite evident that working horses before they are entirely recovered is dangerous, and not unfrequently fatal. It is estimated that 100 horses have died within the past two days.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Not more than one team in 100 on the Delaware and Lehigh Canal is free from disease.

OSWEGO (N.Y.), Nov. 8.—The horse disease is unabated here, notwithstanding the favorable weather.

Trial Trip.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The trial trip of the Japanese Government steamer Kuroda took place in New York harbor yesterday. She will be officered by Americans, and probably sail for Japan within three weeks, in view of the impending war between Japan and Corea, and will receive her armament after her arrival in Japan.

Funeral of General Meade.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—The funeral of Gen. Meade takes place on Monday. The City Council will attend in a body. Independence Hall will be draped in mourning for 30 days.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—The mutilated body found in two barrels in Charles river proves to be that of Elijah Ellis. An inquest is proceeding.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

From London.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Subscriptions are being raised for the relief of the sufferers by the Italian floods.

The steamships America and Anglia have arrived out.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—Captain Albert Macey fell down a flight of stairs and was instantly killed.

A German woman, widow of M. Berlan, committed suicide at the Mission, by taking morphine. She leaves several children.

H. Hyde was found dead in a house on Pacific street to-day.

A buggy and wagon manufactured by Kimball & Co., of this city, will be sent to the Vienna Exposition.

Business in mining stocks to-day is quite good, yet prices of all kinds were weak and irregular, and there was a marked decline in several leading stocks.

Investigation will probably be had into the irregularities in the business of the Board of the State Harbor Commissioners. Rosenfeld has demanded the suspension of several of the employes of the Board till an investigation can be had. There may be a meeting to-morrow. It is reported that several thousand dollars has been received from twenty-six vessels, which did not get into the State Treasury when it should.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 8.—Returns from Arizona indicate the re-election of McCormick to Congress without opposition. Yuma county gives him a solid vote.

The Tucson (Arizona) Citizen of November 2d, says the two Pima boys who started from the reservation with General Howard for Washington, where they were to be educated, ran away near Maricopa Wells, and returned to their parents.

Within a week five applications for the survey of mines of ore for mill sites, have been filed with the Surveyor General. A number of applications are soon to be made by claimants in Walapai district, which proves confidence in the worth of the mines.

VALLEJO, Nov. 8.—A man named Tizard this evening shot himself in the head while in the Mint saloon.

The Benicia has been hauled into the stream, and will take her departure in about ten days. The Resaca has taken her place at the docks.

SAN RAFAEL, Nov. 8.—The new water company has laid pipes and dug a ditch to the town, and is pushing the work rapidly.

Her Majesty's steamship Sparrowhawk will be sold at public auction on Tuesday, November 20th, at the Naval Yard, Esquimalt, by order of the senior officer. We call special attention to the extensive advertisement of the sale of this splendid vessel in another column. The Sparrowhawk is nearly as staunch as when first launched from the ways. All her machinery is in splendid running condition. Everything connected with the vessel will be included in the sale. See advertisement.

Theophilus Gautier, the French poet, critic and author, died on the 23d of October. He was sixty-three years old. At one time he was editor of the Paris Presse and afterwards of the Moniteur.

DECISION IN THE U. S. CIRCUIT COURT BY JUDGE DEADY.

The Oregon Act of December 16, 1863, provided that no action should be maintained by a ward to recover any estate sold by his guardian under that act, unless the same was commenced within five years after the termination of the guardianship excepting only that persons out of the State when the cause of action accrued might sue within five years after their return to the State: Held, that the exception or saving clause applied as well to persons who were never in the State as to those who were temporarily absent from it.

United States Circuit Court—District of Oregon, Wednesday, Nov. 6, 1872.

W. W. Hobart et ux., vs. Charles B. Upton. Action to recover possession of real property.

This action was commenced July 31, 1872, and is brought to recover the possession of an undivided one-tenth of 318 37-100 acres of land lying in Washington county, and described as being the west half of donation claim number 41. The plaintiffs, W. W. Hobart and Marin Elliott his wife allege in their complaint that they are citizens of Nevada, and that said Marin Elliott is the owner in fee simple of said undivided interest, and entitled to the possession thereof.

The defendant in his amended answer admits his possession of the premises, but denies the ownership of said Marin Elliott or that she is entitled to the possession of the premises; and for a further plea or defence alleges that the only interest ever owned by said Marin Elliott in said premises descended to her from her father, John Elliott, before November 3, 1854, and that on said day all said interest was sold and conveyed by the guardian of said Marin Elliott to Theodore S. and Theodore B. Trevitt, under whom the defendant claims, for a valuable consideration in pursuance of the provisions of an act of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Oregon, passed December 16, 1863, relating to the sale of lands of persons under guardianship; and that said Marin Elliott was at the date of such sale a minor and non-resident of the then Territory, now State of Oregon, and ever has been such non-resident; "and that more than five years have expired since the termination of said guardianship." To this special plea there was a demurrer by the plaintiff.

The question raised by the demurrer turns upon the construction of Section 10 of the act referred to in the plea, which reads:—"No action for the recovery of any estate, sold by a guardian under the provisions of this chapter, shall be maintained by the ward, or by any person claiming under him, unless it be commenced within five years next after the termination of the guardianship; excepting only that persons out of the territory, and minors and others under legal disability to sue at the time when the cause of action shall accrue, may commence their action at any time within five years next after the removal of the disability or after their return to the Territory."

Before considering this question, it is proper to observe that this plea is liable to the objection that it anticipates and undertakes to state the plaintiff's reply to the limitation prescribed in the section in question. It should have stopped short with a statement of the facts showing that the premises had been sold at a guardians sale under which defendant claimed, and that the action had not been commenced within five years after the termination of the guardianship. Then if the plaintiffs wished to avail themselves of the disability provided for in the exception to the act, they would reply and state that they were out of the country when the cause of action accrued, and that five years had not elapsed since their return, or that they had not returned at all. 1 Chit. Plead. 614; Bulger vs. Roche, 11 Pick., 36.

But as the facts are all stated in the answer, and the plaintiffs have accepted the pleading in this respect, by demurring to it as insufficient in law, I will consider the matter as if the case stood upon a replication alleging the plaintiff's disability and a demurrer thereto.

It is claimed on the part of the defendant that the exception to the general rule prescribed in the section does not include or apply to any one who never was a resident of the country, because such a person cannot ever be said in the language of the exception to return to the State or territory.

The force of this argument rests solely upon the fact that in its primary and proper sense the word return does not describe the act of coming to the country for the first time. The argument also makes no account of the fact that the persons who are given five years to sue in "after their return to the territory," are first described in the exception simply as "persons out of the territory;" which phrase as well includes those who were never in the country as those who are temporarily absent from it.

The statute of 21 James I, contained an exception in favor of persons "beyond seas," so that such persons were given ten years in which to sue after "coming into the realm." In Strithorst vs Graeme, (3 Wils., 145,) it was held that this exception applied to foreigners, and that the statute did not begin to run against them until they came into England.

The exception in the statute of James as to persons "beyond seas," extended only to the case of plaintiffs. To remedy this, the statute of 4 and 5, Anne, provided that if any persons against whom there is a cause of action, shall be "fallen or come beyond the seas," when such cause of action accrues, the plaintiff shall be at liberty to bring his action against such persons "after their return," within the same time as is limited for such action by the statute of James.

The statute of limitations of the State of New York contained this provision of the statute of Anne. In Ruggles vs Keeler (3 John, 267,) Kent, Ch. J., delivering the opinion of the court upon the construction to be given to the act in this respect, said:

"Whether the defendant be a resident of this State, and only absent for a time, or whether he resides altogether out of the State, is immaterial. He is equally within the proviso. If the cause of action arose out of the State, it is sufficient to save the statute from running in favor of the party to be charged, until he comes within our jurisdiction. This has been the uniform construction of the English statutes, which also speak of the return from beyond seas of the party so absent. The word return has never been construed to confine the proviso to Englishmen, who went abroad occasionally. The exception has been considered as general, and extending equally to foreigners who reside always abroad. See also 5 Bac. Ab. 235.

In Hall vs Little (14 Mass., 203) the plaintiff was a foreigner who had never resided within the United States and the court held that he was within the exception in favor of persons "beyond the seas," when the right of action accrued.

In Wilson vs Appleton (17 Mass., 181,) the ruling in the last case was followed, and the court says:

"That the word return cannot restrict the operation" (of the exception) "to those only who have been in the commonwealth, and have left it for temporary purpose."

In Bulger vs Roche, (Supra 39) the parties were both aliens and without the United States when the cause of action accrued. Shaw Ch. J., in delivering the opinion of the court, says:

"The statute itself provides that it shall not be understood to bar any person, beyond sea. * * * This proviso in terms excludes the operation of the statute in all cases, where the plaintiff is out of the commonwealth at the time the cause of action accrues, without distinguishing whether the plaintiff be a citizen or one who has formerly resided in the State and who is casually absent, or a foreigner who has never been within it." In Van Hemtre vs Porter (11 Met., 215) the plaintiff was a foreigner who had never been within the United States, and it was held that the statute did not run against him, because he was within the words of the exception the term—"absent from the United States."

These cases and others are cited and commented on in Ang. on Lim. Section 204 et seq. as establishing the doctrine that the saving of the right to sue to persons "beyond seas," "absent from the State," etc., until after they return, applies as well to persons who have never been in the country as to those who have.

In the light of these authorities and the uniform construction that has been given to similar language in other statutes, no other conclusion can be reached, than that the plaintiffs are entitled to five years after their return to the State to bring this action, whether they ever resided in it or not. They were "out of the territory" when the cause of action accrued, and are therefore within the purview of the exception or saving clause. The word return in like statutes having never been allowed to restrain or limit the cause to persons only temporarily out of the country, it ought not to be taken in that sense in the case before the Court. In enacting the statute the Legislature is presumed to have intended that the language of the exception should be taken and understood according to the long established construction in like case.

The demurrer is sustained.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 9, 1872

The Cause of the Failure

Various will be the reasons assigned by the Greeley press of the country for the failure of the combined movement to defeat the Republican party There is more amusement than profit in all such speculation and yet there is a lesson to be learned from the result if it is rightly interpreted It is the part of wisdom to be warned or guided by past experience

By one, the success of the Republican party will be attributed to the popularity of General Grant by another, to the unpopularity of Mr Greeley, and others still will assert that there was an improper use of the patronage and power of the Government to secure the re-election of the President This last charge is one of those easily made accusations which always follow an election in which the party already in power is triumphant. The defeated party resorts to the suggestion of fraud, as the best explanation of its failure, this being at once the simplest and most comprehensive theory upon which the result may be accounted for, and, by reason of its sweeping generality, least liable to specific refutation It matters not how scrupulously the President and his officers may have endeavored to shun, not only the evil but the appearance of evil, this charge will be made to account for the results of the election, as it was made during the contest for the purpose of influencing elections against the administration

That Grant s popularity with Republicans, and Greeley's unpopularity with those who were formerly Democrats, had much to do, as special forces, with the result, there can be no doubt It was impossible for Republicans to forget the great services of Grant, both as General and as President, to the cause for which they have always labored And it was equally impossible for Democrats to shut their eyes to the fact that Horace Greeley was their old-time foe, who had dealt them more hard ungloved blows than any other man in the country The files of his Tribune were a perpetual reminder of his enmity to the Democratic party, and one that the Republicans did not permit to lie silent in the dust and mould of the past Morning, noon and night Mr Greeley was confronted by his own words —words of denunciation, invective and ridicule—uttered against those upon whose friendship and suffrages he was now depending Everywhere those words were flaunted in the face of the ex Democrats, who lived over again, in reading them, the old struggle in which they and their ideas of government went down together and forever, in a storm of leaden hail It is not in the nature of things that such memories should have no effect to damp the ardor of the enthusiasm of this class for Mr Greeley.

But after all, and deeper down, lies the truth upon which we apprehend the philosophic mind will rest its theory of the case The truth is, the Greeley party had no legitimate excuse for its existence The demands of the time did not require its formation, nor justify its presence Had the Democratic party made the fight upon grounds distinctively Democratic, it could at least have said that it still believed the time-honored and time-condemned principles of the party were correct, and that it was determined to stand by those principles to the last, in the hope that in some happier day the country would come back to the observance of them. Here it could have entrenched itself and commanded the respect of the people of the nation, and the votes of its own members. But the abandonment of all distinctive political principles, was the abandonment of everything that contributed to make the Democratic party a party, and there was no longer any place for it in the politics of the country. The nomination of Mr. Greeley, upon a platform that was a flat contradiction of the past action of the party and a virtual endorsement of the Republican platforms of the last twelve years, left nothing upon which to build for the future except the question, Which was the more fit man to be President of the United States, Grant or Greeley?

This question was not sufficiently broad nor sufficiently permanent for the foundation of a national party. It involved a contest that ought, if made at all, to have been made within the Republican party, by Republicans, and not in the alliance of the friends of one of the candidates with the Democracy and the attempt to form a new party with only the difference between one man and another for its platform of principles. The Greeley party failed because it was an abortion and a monstrosity in itself, more than by reason of the personal popularity or weakness of one candidate or the other

Certain irresponsible persons, it appears, are making rather a good thing out of the Centennial Celebration, even at this early stage of the preparation for that event, by soliciting subscriptions in Pennsylvania under the pretense of authority from the United States Centennial Commission The matter coming to the ears of William P Blake, Executive Commissioner, has elicited a card from that gentleman in which he denounces these patriotic solicitors of subscriptions as a set of unmitigated swindlers and forgers Mr Blake further takes occasion, and very properly too, to say that this Centennial Celebration is not confined to Philadelphia, nor even to the State of Pennsylvania alone, and that neither that city nor State is responsible for the plan of the Celebration or of its preliminary steps The whole country is supposed to be equally blessed with the peace protection and liberty secured by the event the anniversary of which it is proposed to celebrate The advantages flowing from the Declaration of Independence and the formation of the American Union, Mr Blake suggests, are not confined to the State of Pennsylvania by the accident of the Declaration having been adopted when the Congress was in session at Philadelphia The commission of which he is named as the executive head is composed of two members from each State and Territory, whose co operation in the premises, or countenance at least, would the Executive under obligations

The Democratic Press on the Situation

The Democratic papers of the State which have come to hand so far take the defeat of their candidate for the Presidency with the most philosophic composure imaginable Some of them as the State Rights Democrat, treat it as a huge joke while another class of which the Enterprise is a representative, regard the defeat as indicating nothing except that Democrats cannot be induced to vote for a Republican for President

The Enterprise says

The defeat of Mr Greeley is by no means the death of the Democracy nor is its mission ended Truth is eternal Neither defeat nor victory can add to or take from it Though all mankind may at times apparently reject it the truth must ever stand firm, and in the end be triumphant In support of the declarations and principles of the party opposed to the Administration have been supported by the best and purest men of the country

This is certainly encouraging to the Democrats but we cannot but consider the remarks of the Enterprise somewhat ambiguous The Enterprise we trust will pardon our simplicity if we venture to inquire what truth it is that is eternal and that is so stubborn that you can neither add to nor take from it?

Is it the truth of the State rights and secession doctrine that the Democracy used to hold or the truth of the Union one and inseparable, of the later period? Is it the old truth of free trade or the new truth of protection for one section of the country and free trade for another? And what 'declarations of principles' are those that have received the support of "the best and purest men of the country" Are they the declarations that the war was right or that it was wrong? That the amendments to the Constitution were fraudulent and void, or that they were valid and binding? Are they the declarations of the party before 1872 or the declarations of the late Baltimore Convention?

We are delighted with the serenity of the Democratic journals and have not asked these questions with any other object than that of obtaining information

Mexican Railway

The era of railways is dawning upon Mexico The great railway enterprises which General Rosecranz has been urging for some years, seem likely to be successfully inaugurated soon, and with the most flattering prospects A trans continental line from Tuxpan, or some other point on the Gulf of Mexico, to a port on the Pacific ocean, probably Manzanillo, and a north and south line to connect the City of Mexico with the Texas Pacific, are now in contemplation, and the project of their construction is in the hands of an American company, possessing, it is said, ample capital for the purpose. Their plans have received very favorable consideration from the Mexican Government. They will, in all probability, receive valuable assistance in the way of Government aid These capitalists are of Pennsylvania, their headquarters being at Philadelphia, and it is not unlikely their Mexican enterprise will turn out to be simply another addition to the already vast operations of the men who control the Pennsylvania Central Relying upon assurances which they have received from the Mexican Government, the company have already commenced the preliminary surveys, and have caused reconnoissances to be made of some twenty different routes, or possible lines of road, notes of which surveys they have before them as a means of enabling them to determine what routes shall be adopted It is expected that some two hundred miles of these roads will be completed under arrangements already made, and that for the remainder of the work there will be little difficulty in obtaining suitable concessions from the Government The new Government of Mexico is heartily in sympathy with the efforts of the company, and affords to General Rosecrans every facility in its power for the collection of information concerning the resources and capabilities of the country. It is expected the proposed railway westward from the City of Mexico, will reach the Texas Pacific at the junction of the Denver road with the latter, thus forming a continuous line from the City of Mexico, northerly to the Union Pacific

We are told the Judges of Election at several precincts of Wasco county, cast out a large number of Republican votes, and refused to count the vote for O'Conor, We have not received the particulars of the transaction, nor have we any knowledge of the reasons which the judges claimed to have for such conduct If the Republican and O'Conor votes thus unceremoniously rejected were so grossly illegal as to justify this course, that fact certainly should be known, as a defense to the action of judges, it on no other ground It is not a trivial thing to sit at the judges' table as the instrument of the law in securing to every legal voter the privilege of the elective franchise, and peremptorily refuse to accept the ballot that a citizen offers to deposit If those Republicans who offered to vote for Grant and the Democrats who wished to support O Conor, were lawful electors, the man who would take it upon himself to prevent them from doing so because it did not accord with his wishes to see Grant or O Conor President, ought to be dealt with as other malefactors are dealt with We shall be exceedingly glad to learn that we have been misinformed in the premises, and shall watch with some interest as we believe our readers will also for a contradiction or explanation of the report

FIRE AT DALLAS —At about half past 3 o'clock, Thursday morning, the 7th inst, at Dallas a fire broke out in Morris butcher shop adjoining, Glaze & McCann s saloon and consumed every building from Brown s brick store southward, to Clugmann s saloon, which was saved with great effort Stiles & Co s grocery store was entirely destroyed, but most of the goods were saved Loss about $5 000 The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary It is stated that certain parties who were not on friendly terms with Glaze & McCann had made threats of burning their premises, and suspicion seems to rest upon them in connection with this fire No fire was kept in or about the butcher shop

Ordinance No. 1250.

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE TIME and manner of improving that part of "G" street lying between North Fourth and North Sixth streets

The city of Portland does ordain as follows

Section 1 The proposed improvement of that part of "G" street lying between the west line of North Fourth Street and the west line of North Sixth Street shall be completed as hereinafter provided, on or before the 1st day of January 1873

Section 2 The surface of the street shall be cleared of all plank, timbers or other obstacles or perishable materials (sidewalks of the proper width and cistern covers excepted). If the such actions are not removed by the owners of the adjacent lots within three days from the service of this notice by the Street Commissioner, they shall be removed by and become the property of the contractor

Section 3 The improvement shall consist of grading wholly covering the roadway and intersections with plank and putting in box gutters in the intersections

Section 4 The grading shall be such as to present a uniform surface for the planking to rest upon, with which it shall be in contact at every point

Section 5 The bottom plank of the gutter shall be twelve inches wide the curb and the outside stringer shall form the sides the outside stringer shall be set edgewise, and be of such width as to extend to the bottom of the gutter planks, to which it shall be securely spiked

The center stringer shall be twelve inches wide. There shall be three stringers eight inches wide laid at equal distances apart between the center stringer and each outside stringer The covering plank shall be not less than eight nor more than two inches wide; all plank and stringers used in the improvement shall be four inches thick

The planking of the center line of the street shall be a grade at the center and the top of the planking shall be four inches below grade as near as may be with a gradual slope to the cross street or cross walk

Section 6 On the intersections with the cross streets the planking shall be laid as follows

Commencing at a point three feet from the side line of the street and parallel therewith the planking for a distance of six feet shall extend from the center of the street at an angle across the gutter to the curb on the grade, or as near thereto as practicable to serve as cross-walks the planking inside of the line above named shall slope to the planking of the street between the blocks and conform thereto

Between the two the crosswalks the planking eight feet each side of the center line of the street or crosswalk shall be laid on the grade

At the gutters on a line from the corner of the street to the corner of the sixteen feet flat roadway above described the top of the plank shall be two inches below grade and slope upward to the cross walk and plank roadway

On the south side of the intersection the gutter shall be twenty four inches wide and not less than six inches deep in the clear

The covering plank shall form the top the sides secured at the bottom plank securely spiked thereto. The stringers shall be eight inches wide, and in no case more than six feet apart

Sec 7 Under every joint in the stringers or gutter planks, a strip of plank two feet long eight inches wide and two inches thick shall be firmly embedded in the earth The stringers and gutter planks shall be sixteen feet in length as near as may be and at every joint in the stringer the planking shall be nailed with two seven inch spikes to weigh five to the pound All spikes shall be driven straight up to the surface of the plank and at least one to an inch below the surface

The joints to be broken alternately and all the work to be done in a workmanlike manner and finished up neatly

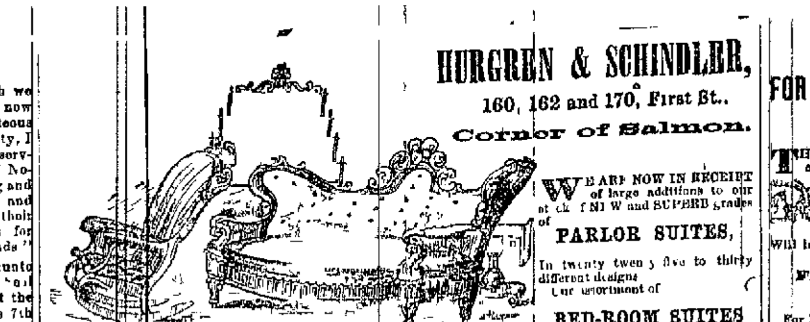

Section 8 The provisions of Sections 11 and 12, Ordinance No 903, shall apply to all lumber and material used in the improvement herein provided for

Section 9 The improvement shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Committee on Streets and Public Property, and the Street Commissioner, who shall have the supervision thereof

Passed the Common Council November 6, 1872

SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 9, 1872

CITY.

THE STAGE ROBBERS.—This morning the four persons tried, convicted and sentenced in the United States District Court for robbing the stage and mails in Antelope Canyon, last July, namely Thompkins, Bramlette, White and Hanson, will be taken to Salem In accordance with the sentence, those men will be confined in the State Penitentiary for life. To the very last the prisoners assert their innocence of the crime for which they are condemned Bramlette states that he was taken into the woods after his arrest and compelled to dismount by a revolver being placed at his head His arms were then pinioned, a noose placed around his neck, and he drawn three times from the earth and allowed to hang until nearly strangulated, under threats from his capture that they would hang him until he was dead, unless he confessed the crime; that after being nearly choked to death, he had confessed to the robbery of the stage, and at the instance of the captors, admitted that Tompkins, Hanson and White, were also engaged in the robbery; that when he (Bramlette) was allowed to remount his horse and ride away from the spot, he emphatically denied every statement which he had made in his confessions. He repeated that it was extorted from him under threats of death, but that there was not one word of the confession true. Hanson and White both stated that they were innocent of the crime. They did not know, either of them, the charge on which they were arrested until taken to the house The parties making the arrest stated all along that it was for stealing horses. Hanson said that one of the principal parties who figured in the whole case, had offered him one hundred dollars if he would escape, but that he (Hanson) had refused the offer Hanson also stated that he only desired to live long enough to see the whole matter cleared up, and to recover his name from the odium which attached to it by reason of his complicity in the matter He proposed to meet his fate like a man, and to labor hard and faithfully while he was kept confined; he had never yet stolen anything in his life, and his conscience was perfectly clear on that score. All the three prisoners had no fault to find with either the Judge or jury. They expressed entire satisfaction with the manner in which the case had been managed from the commencement to the ending, they had had as fair and impartial a trial as they could reasonably expect under the circumstances. Considering the heavy sentence, the prisoners appeared calm and resigned to their hard hopeless lot. Each expressed a hope that the mystery enshrouding the case would at last be unravelled, and the guilty parties brought to condign punishment, for the grave crime which they were called upon to suffer.

SERIOUS FALL.—Numerous times has public attention been called to the condition of some of the sidewalks of the city. Planks which were laid years ago and not since been replaced by new, are in a state requiring some attention. More especially do we refer to the old corroded heads of nails which protrude above the surface of the plank, the wood having sprung or been worn down from around the heads. Quite a severe accident occurred yesterday, the result directly of these ugly undriven nails. A gentleman while walking rapidly along the street chanced to meet a couple of ladies. As a number of persons were passing and repassing at the point where the three parties mentioned happened to meet, the gentleman stepped one side to allow the ladies to pass His attention being attracted, just at that moment he did not observe where he was placing his foot. One of those protruding spike heads caught the toe of his boot, and tripped him up in a twinkle In his endeavor to catch himself and break the force of the fall, the palm of his right hand was brought in violent contact with another spike head. The sharp point lacerated the hand very severely, and a piece of the flesh was torn away. The wound is a painful one, and will place the gentleman's hand in a sling for a few days. The city will yet have to pay dearly for some serious accident which may result from the want of a small amount of attention.

INSANE.—A man named S. D. Newkirk was examined yesterday before Judge Hamilton by Dr. W. H. Watkins, being deemed insane by the police officers. The examination resulted in the issuance of an order from the Court authorizing his removal to the Asylum. Newkirk came to this city several weeks ago. He is a miserable, degraded specimen of humanity, and his listless and abstracted wanderings about the streets, at length attracted the attention of the police authorities. On being questioned by the officer, he could give no satisfactory account of himself, and his answers were incoherent. He was arrested on a charge of vagrancy and sentenced to the county jail for ten days. His continued strange conduct at last induced the belief that his mind was disordered. The opinion of the examining physician confirmed the belief of the officers. The cause of his mental aberration is not known. He will be taken to the Asylum to day.

PASSENGERS.—The steamship John L Stephens sailed for San Francisco last evening, carrying away the following passengers Hon H W Corbett and wife, J N Shaw, Isaac Pincus, H A Dougherty, A B Hinkly, Frank Hinkly & wife, S A Clarke, Thos Martin, C M Martin, O S Foshheimer, Capt J L Johnson, Lieut M Crawford, U S A, Thos Filtean, Wm Whitman and wife, F S Chadbourne, and wife, Mr McCrum, wife and child, J F Walling and wife, S E Demero, J B Clark, R G Fenster, S J Katz, C A Lonmuller, R H Moore, Jos Barstow, Dr H H Davis, N P May, Miss Guffe, Miss Ada Montgomery, Miss M H Lightor, Mrs H F Protzman, Miss Francis Bubinott, J P Lenard, H S Davis, J M Morrill, Jos Winemiller and mother, Miss Kate Adcock, Mrs Mary Dybee and child, Mrs Caldwell and 2 children, Robt W Gibson, Thos Stowbarger, B Salaig, W F & Co's messenger, and 16 in the steerage.

INSTALLED.—The following officers were installed Thursday evening at a regular meeting of Myrtle Grove No. 2, U A O D, for the ensuing term, by D D G A, W H Utter, assisted by P A's, A Jubitz, A J Marshall, L F A Shaw, H Webber and G W Hillman C H Stolte, N A; A B Hallock, V A; O N Packard, I G, R. Norman, T, P Raney, C; D Rieman, R H to N A, A A Williams, L H B to N A, G J Boston, R H B to V A. At a meeting of Oleanthe Grove No. 4, U A O D, held last evening, the following officers were duly installed: Ward S Stevens, N A, H R Leonard, V A; W T Webber, R S, R D Freeborn, Treasurer; W Abernethy, I G, G W Hillman, Trustee; H D Chapman, C; G A Beath, R H B to N A; A Ford, L H B to N A; G E Gilbert, R H B to V A; W Winne, L H B to V A.

VAULT.—A large iron vault is now being manufactured at the Willamet Iron Works. The vault will be placed in the office of the railroad and steamship companies for the safe deposit of valuable papers, in the event of fire The masonry work is now being prepared in the office. The dimensions of the vault are ten feet in height by six feet and four feet six inches. It is made of quarter inch boiler iron When placed in the vault it will be surrounded by a double wall of brick, with an arched top. It will have inner and outer doors, and between the two walls will be a space of two inches, making the vault perfectly fire proof The work will soon be completed, and the vault will probably be in position in another week.

SYMPTOMS OF INSANITY.—Since Frank Tompkins has received his sentence in the United States District Court on last Wednesday, he has manifested strong symptoms of insanity. He imagines that some one is endeavoring to suffocate him with gas, or is trying to crush him to death in his cell. At times he is violent, and during the night time often disturbs his fellow prisoners by his shouts and outcries. He is kept confined in a cell separate from the other prisoners Yesterday when the reporter visited his cell he was lying on his back in a slumber so profound and death like that it was almost impossible to arouse him. He eats sparingly, communicates but little with any one, and appears oblivious of everything which transpires about him.

APPOINTED ON THE STAFF.—Brigadier General Martin Van Buren Brown, of the Oregon Militia, has recently promoted E. Cahalin from the rank of Major to that of Adjutant General of the Brigade Gen. Brown has also appointed our young friend of the Herald, Mr. Chas Nowell, Aid de Camp of the Staff with the rank of Captain. We hope Charles will bear his blushing honors which are heaped thick upon him, with that modesty for which he is so proverbial and with the grace and dignity becoming a great soldier Ours his plumes, epaulets, natty blue and brass buttons, all included in one commission Ambition, thy fond dreams have been realized

THE LECTURE.—Another immense audience was present last evening at the Masonic Hall, to listen to the second lecture of Miss Edith O'Gorman Her subject on that occasion was the "Roman Priesthood." She will deliver, this afternoon, a private lecture to ladies exclusively.

WORK COMMENCED.—Work was commenced yesterday at the foot of Columbia street, by the driving of piles, for the preliminary work on the Portland Bridge The intention at first was to examine the bottom of the river by the aid of a boring apparatus, but this was abandoned, and piles will be driven along at intervals extending out from the foot of the street towards the middle of the stream, for a distance of several hundred feet Work will not, however, be commenced in earnest, until the meeting of the Board of Engineers for the Pacific coast, and the results of their inspection of the plans are known

TAXABLE PROPERTY.—Mr. N. H. Lane has just completed the annual assessment of East Portland The following is the list of taxable property for 1872

Value of land	$ 182,950
Value of all lots	641,850
Value of all personal property	221,982
	$1,051,782
Indebtedness	60,282
Net value of assessment	$991,500

PRISONERS.—Sheriff George, of Baker county, brought down Thursday evening six prisoners on route for the Penitentiary. He had in custody two white men and four Chinamen One of the white men is under sentence of ten years for murder, and the other for three years for horse stealing We were unable to ascertain the length of the sentences or the crime committed by the Chinamen. The prisoners were conveyed to Salem yesterday morning.

LOSS BY THE FIRE.—The insurance agents were examining yesterday the stock of goods of L. Baum & Co., to ascertain and appraise the damages sustained by the fire of Thursday evening. As yet it is a very difficult matter to determine the exact amount of damage caused by the fire and water. It is safe to say that the loss will not exceed $8,000 The stock is insured for $21,000, as follows Imperial $16,000, Home Mutual, $5,000.

READY TO SAIL.—The bark Edward James which sailed some time ago for the Sound, intending to carry away from there a cargo of lumber for China, had completed her cargo on the 2d instant, at Bird's Island, and was ready to proceed on the voyage as soon as a tug could be employed to tow her out. She is doubtless on her passage ere now.

FEMALE INEBRIETY.—We were forcibly and painfully impressed yesterday with the truth of the saying that lovely woman often stoops to folly, by seeing a handsome and fashionably-dressed female staggering along the streets in a state of maudlin intoxication. Another strong argument for the establishment of a House of Correction.

ASSISTANT ENGINEERS.—At a meeting held last evening by the members of Columbian Engine Co. No. 3, it was determined to accord a hearty and cordial support to J. P. Wilcox, of Willamette No 1, and A. J. Gray of Protection No. 4, for Assistant Engineers of the Fire Department at the ensuing firemen's election.

THEIR AGES.—The following are the respective ages of the stage robbers, who will be taken to Salem this morning in custody of the U. S. Marshal: Tompkins, 35 years; Hanson, 34; Bramlette, 22 and White 30. All the prisoners are single men except Tompkins, who has a wife and three children.

CLEARING RUBBISH.—A gang of Chinamen were engaged yesterday along Fourth street in clearing away all the rubbish made in the progress of the late improvements, in the way of old lumber, etc, torn up at the intersections of the various streets.

SENT TO JAIL.—Two Chinamen were arraigned before Judge Denny yesterday morning, on a charge of stealing a lot of sacks. One of the defendants was discharged, and the other sentenced to the county jail for the period of 30 days.

SPORTSMEN'S CLUB.—There will be a meeting of the members of the Sportsmen's Club this evening at 7 o'clock at the Police Court room As full an attendance as possible is desired.

BIDS OPENED.—Bids will be opened to day at the office of the Portland Bridge Company for the contract of furnishing piling, etc., for the bridge.

ADMINISTRATOR APPOINTED.—The County Court yesterday appointed James Goodsell, Administrator of the estate of Jos. Baldy, deceased.

MEETING.—There will be a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Wallamet Bridge Company at their office this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

RECOVERING.—Andrew Payne, the young man who was accidentally shot near Sandy last week, is rapidly recovering

AMUSEMENTS.

"Nick of the Woods," and the new local sketch of "Terry O'Rear, or the Escaped Nun," this evening at Oro Fino Theater.

At half past two o'clock this afternoon Miss Edith O'Gorman will deliver a private lecture to ladies only. On this occasion, no gentlemen will be admitted. Miss O'Gorman has given this lecture recently in Philadelphia to immense audiences, and also in Boston, New York and Washington City, at which lectures were present hundreds of distinguished ladies. Price of admission the same.

Mr. Vinson should feel flattered by the patronage given by the public at his benefit last evening, but the public is also indebted to Mr. Vinson for the entertainment on the occasion. The play of "Grimaldi," in which the beneficiary took the leading character, was excellently rendered and received with frequent plaudits by an appreciative audience. This afternoon a matinee, and to night the usual entertainment, on which occasions very interesting and pleasing programmes will be presented See the bills

PERSONAL.

Lieut. M. Crawford of the U. S A, took his departure last evening on the steamer for California.

Mr. J E Evans, Observer Signal Service, U. S A., at this place, vice Edward Garland, relieved, arrived on the last steamer from San Francisco. Mr. Evans comes directly from Charleston, South Carolina, at which place he has been stationed for several years. He has been in the Signal Service for some time, and has an extended and thorough experience in the various duties of the position

BUSINESS NOTICES.

We call special attention to the auction sale of A B Richardson, this morning, of real estate, at his rooms, at 10 A. M, and also the important sale of stock this afternoon at 1 o'clock, at the corner of 11th and Market streets Read his advertisement

The last United States Report of 1870 places the population of Portland at 8,293, and classifies them as follows 5,71[illegible] natives and 2,578 foreign born 7,600 whites 119 colored and 456 Chinese The same report gives the population in 1860 as having been 2,768 exclusive of Chinese This shows how much we had grown, but we have to regret that all the figures are much too low

If you have not already ordered a fall or winter suit we would advise no longer The work turned out by J O Neil & Co, 30 First street, is considered by gentlemen of taste as A No 1 The materials used are of the very best quality. To make room for new goods, a large and superior assortment has been made Recollect that they keep the best furnishing goods make fitting shirts, and other goods at prices that meet with favor among all classes

No more spilling of tooth powders and washes Travelers should always buy Lyon's Tablets

THE TERRITORIES.

Four drunken Indians enlivened the streets of Olympia on election day

The wharves at Port Gamble are being rebuilt and very much extended, which, when completed will afford accommodations for ten or twelve ships of the largest tonnage to lay side by side and take in their cargoes

A public meeting of the inhabitants of San Juan Island was held October 29th, to petition the Imperial Government that Captain Delacombe may be instructed to remain on the Island until all the arrangements for the transfer have been made It is understood that many of the British residents will become American citizens.

The bark Rainier sailed for San Francisco on the 30th ult, leaving Port Gamble without a ship—a thing that has not happened before for a very long time. The vessels expected there (some of which are now due) are the ship Elizabeth Kimball and the bark W G Patten from San Francisco, the ship Transito de Alvarez and the Elvira Alvarez from Valparaiso, and the ship Pro... (late the American ship Orion) from Callao.

The Seattle Intelligencer of the 4th inst. says: "The schooner Clara Light, Capt S C Mitchell, arrived here on Wednesday last from North Bay She had on board 140,000 feet of lumber, 80 tons of old iron from the barkentine Hattie C Besse, which went ashore last winter at Cape Flattery, 200 hundred bundles of hoops, 4 cords of cedar bolts, 27 barrels and 75 cases of oil, and other merchandise. She completed her cargo with 30,000 feet of lumber from the mill at this place, and sailed on Thursday last for San Francisco."

Mr Gunn, editor of the Olympia Transcript, was prostrated by a paralytic stroke on last Wednesday Three physicians were called and through their exertions the patient was roused from the stupor into which he had fallen, and they think he will recover. They say that his disease is a form of insanity resulting from nervous exhaustion. Mr. Gunn had been working very hard in his editorial business under the excitement of the approaching election, and also had been smoking tobacco excessively, which are said to be the causes of this sudden and unfortunate attack.

SECRET DISCOVERED.—The secret of dressing is not so much in expensive clothing as in the perfect fit of the garments This fact is thoroughly understood by Fishel & Roberts, corner of First and Washington streets; hence their popularity among gentlemen. Their stock is complete in every department If you would keep warm during the coming winter, delay not in selecting suitable winter goods. You will certainly experience no trouble in selecting from the new goods recently received at this house Those who have once dealt with them rarely ever change for another. Fair dealing and courteous manners make business.

The old saying is, "What everybody says must be true," and everyone says that Beck & Waldman have the largest and best selected stock of the latest styles and patterns in gentlemen's Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the city of Portland. They have the largest variety of Boy's, Youth's, and Children's Suits, all which will be sold according to the times Please call and satisfy yourself that we will not be undersold by anyone.

Seasonable Suggestions.

The heavy mists and cold night dews which characterize the present season are very trying to delicate organizations, and in low lying and swampy localities they produce an enormous crop of intermittent fevers of various types and degrees of intensity At this very time there are probably half a million of people in the United States suffering from periodical fevers by miasmatic fogs and exhalations What makes the prevalence of this evil the more deplorable is the fact that it might in all cases be easily prevented Malaria and damp produce little or no effect upon the system prefortified by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters Every fall and spring hundreds of letters are received from persons residing in ague and fever districts, who state that while their neighbors are incapacitated for labor by that debilitating disease, they have been happily exempted from attack by the regular use of the great vegetable antidote to miasma As a cure, too, for sporadic fever, intermittent and remittent as the Bitters may be justly accounted infallible They eradicate the complaint in the most obstinate forms but the wise ... by ... the preparation as a preventive ... productive labor withdrawn from ... season during several months in the year by malarious diseases is immense, and the pecuniary losses to individuals, families and the nation from this cause is incalculable Bear in mind that by tuning and regulating the system with Hostetter's Bitters before the autumn comes, it may be made proof against fever, and let it also be remembered that indigestion, general debility, biliousness, constipation, nervous complaints, and indeed almost all the disturbances and derangements of the physical system are controlable by this grand restorative.

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.--1860--X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

LYON'S KATHAIRON,

For Preserving and Beautifying the Human Hair. To Prevent its Falling Out and Turning Grey.

A well preserved Head of Hair, in a person of middle age, at once bespeaks refinement, elegance, health and beauty. It may truly be called Woman's Crowning Glory, while men are not insensible to its advantages and charms. Few things are more disgusting than thin, frizzly, harsh, untamed Hair, with head and coat covered with Dandruff. Visit a barber and you feel and look like a new man. This is what LYON'S KATHAIRON will do all the time. The charm which lies in well placed Hair, Glossy Curls, Luxuriant Tresses, and a Clean Head, is noticeable and irresistible.

German Gambling Places.

[From the Boston Advertiser.]

With the close of the present year the last of the public gambling houses of Germany will disappear. Already the famous Kursaal of Ems has closed its doors for the last time. One One week to-day Baden-Baden and Nauheim bid farewell to their gambling guests; but Wiesbaden and Hombourg open their doors to all comers until the expiration of the present year. The natural result of the approaching termination of the concessions which the gambling bankers have enjoyed has been to increase the number and the madness of the players. It is asserted that the profits of the bank at Ems have reached almost a third of a million dollars this year. At Wiesbaden and Baden Baden there have been immense crowds of excited players. At Hombourg there has been such a rush that the old traditions of quietness and gentility have been broken down. Thieving among the players is common, high words are exchanged over the roulette table, and the whole scene is one of hurly-burly and confusion. A correspondent of the London Daily News mentions one circumstance that shows the carelessness of the bank and of the government now that the gambling days are so nearly over. Heretofore the residents of Hombourg have been prohibited from entering the gaming rooms at all during half the year, and have not been allowed to play at any season. In these last months, however, both restrictions have been removed and the silly people who have seen so many thousands fleeced and sent away penniless have entered the maelstrom of play as giddily as any foolish boy. The tradesmen of Hombourg are among the losers this year, and it is reported that they take their misfortune without the least fortitude. One visitor from Malta, who has once or twice before made heavy inroads upon the bank, has this year won upwards of $200,000, but the bank has doubtless made good this loss, and more too from the silly pigeons who have gone to Hombourg only to be plucked.

The history of these famous gambling houses is interesting. They were all established either when the public sentiment of the world tolerated games of chance for money as amusement or for money getting, or when that sentiment was just beginning to be aroused against it. They were scattered throughout the Rhine country, Wiesbaden and Ems being in the grand duchy of Nassau, Nauheim in Hesse-Cassel, Baden-Baden in the grand-duchy of Baden, Hombourg in Hesse-Hombourg, and Aix-la-Chapelle in Rhenish Prussia. Some of these gaming places were established in the last century, but others are much more recent. Hombourg, for instance, closes after a term of just thirty years. In 1842, two brothers named Blanc, who had found it convenient to leave France, having for stock in trade a roulette wheel, a few thousand francs and an old croupier of Frascati, visited Frankfort and tried to get permission to open a gambling-house. Failing there, in the smallest State of Germany, they went to Hombourg, the next smallest, and bought over the prime minister to their purposes. An arrangement was made by which the brothers Blanc were to pay a certain sum into the treasury of the landgrafate, to expend a fixed amount in beautifying the town and to build a Kursaal at a cost which was agreed upon. A company was formed the entire capital of which was subscribed by Hebrew capitalists, while the brothers Blanc were to have half the profits. From that time to the present the bank has enjoyed almost uninterrupted prosperity. The Kursaal of Hombourg became almost the most popular in Germany, and fabulous dividends were made by the company. But the war of 1871, which broke up the old German empire and established the North German confederation, gave Prussia the opportunity to absorb the lesser States of the Rhine. With the change came the long looked for opportunity to close up the whole collection of gambling houses. Early in 1868 an attempt was made to induce the proprietors of the houses at Ems, Hombourg and Wiesbaden to cancel their contracts, and on their refusal a bill was passed by the Prussian legislature fixing 1872 as the end of them all. Baden was brought into the German empire by the war of 1870-71, and its great establishment shares the same fate. When it became obvious that the gamblers could no longer make the Rhine provinces their headquarters they looked about for another location. The necessities of France and the leniency exhibited toward many popular sins suggested Paris as the new headquarters; but in spite of the support given to the proposition by some of the Paris newspapers of which better things might have been hoped, the request was denied, and France refused to withdraw the prohibition that had been placed on all such enterprises since the beginning of 1838.

Thousands of travellers have described the scenes they have witnessed at these moribund gambling hells. In spite of their gorgeous appearance, the undoubted natural attractions of the watering places where they are situated and the general quiet and good order that have been enforced, they have been a public scandal. It is high time they were closed forever. Customs change, and so do the ideas of men and women regarding what is right and wrong. The Chaplain Sampson of Thackeray's "Virginians" was doubtless a true picture. Fifty years ago bookstores were generally lottery ticket salesrooms as well. A change for the better has come over the world. Gambling is a disreputable and an outlawed occupation. Men still bet in public on the race course and elsewhere. Our stock markets are too often great gambling houses in disguise. Corners in grain and in gold are no better than heavy bets on the price of those articles. But the system is universally condemned, and those who engage in this sort of speculation are not among the respected members of the community. The sooner the last vestige of the soul destroying system of gambling disappears the better. The rage for gaming is too strong and too tenacious to allow much chance for the escape of the victim who is once firmly seized by it. Few will contend that a government should tolerate a practice that results sooner or later in the ruin of all who engage in it.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Financial.

FRIDAY EVENING, Nov. 8, 1872.

Gold in New York to-day, 112.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 89c buying; 90c selling.

Wheat in Liverpool, 12s 3d, Club, 13s@13s 3d.

Exchange by telegraph; via New York, 1¾@1½ per cent. premium; via San Francisco, par to ½ per cent. premium.

In the general market to-day there appears no sign of material improvement. The business of the week so far in the aggregate has not been very large, and during the day it has been dull. Financial matters are in no better condition, though it is expected that some relief from the stringency may come shortly. Our exchanges from San Francisco and the Eastern cities note a decided abatement in the pressure prevailing so generally during the fall. From whatever case it may arise, or from whatever source it may come, the people of Portland will welcome it most heartily.

Home Produce Market.

The Reporter gives the following as the exports of Wheat from Portland to the United Kingdom since the commencement of the present harvest season, August 1, 1872, are as follows

Cleared.	Name of vessel.	Centals.	Value
October 2,	Ep bk Manilla.*	17,908	$26,407
October 8,	Nr bk Electra.+	17,946	26,472
October 10,	Nr bk Navigator,	16,794	25,511
October 28,	Br bk Loch Dee,	20,958	35,049
Nov. 13,	Br ship Siam,	20,304	29,959
*Liverpool. †Cork		96,920	143,980

Against 4 vessels for the like time, 1871.

Liverpool quotations come through at 12s 8d for average lots and 13s 3d for Club. San Francisco advices give market fair at $1 50 to $1 60 for shipping and $1 55 to $1 62½ for milling. Prices have appreciated somewhat and we may quote the demand fair at $1 40 per cental sacked and delivered. The vessels on the berth are the British ship Grasmere and the British bark Red Deer, both to be loaded by Messrs. Allen & Lewis for Messrs Rogers, Meyer & Co. The American ship Zouave came up to-day, and will commence receiving in the morning. She will be loaded by Messrs. Hewett, Wilson & Co.

Flour, Oats, Hay and Feed, are in fair demand, and prices remain firm at the figures last given.

Vegetables to-day have not been in so full receipt as usual, though the demand is nearly supplied and rates rule no higher than on yesterday.

A continued scarcity of a No. 1 article of fresh Butter is noticed. Eggs will soon reach a high figure and probably keep well up for a long time. 45c is offered for fresh.

Importations.

Since the 1st of November, our imports have been 157 cases of boots and shoes, 149 cases of canned goods, 418 boxes of candles, 250 bbls cement, 600 bbls lime, 25 cases cigars, 26 pkgs cordage, 287 bags coffee, 113 pkgs crockery, 56 pkgs dry goods, 60 pkgs drugs, chemicals, etc., 30 pkgs and hlf bbls fish, 24 cases, confectionery 175 pkgs glass, 33 cases giant powder, 90 pkgs hardware, 44 pkgs malt liquors, 47 pkgs tinware, 13 boxes tin and 24 pigs do, 630 kegs and 20 bbls syrup, 144 kegs nails 60 cases turpentine, 50 bbls rosin, 603 cases coal oil, 15 cases lard oil, 21 kegs white lead, 6 pkgs ham, 22 do of bacon, 5 of lard, 4 sacks and 100 mats rice, 390 boxes soap, 25 pkgs starch, 55 pkgs spices, 49 pkgs whisky, 4 pkgs brandy, 11 cases bitters and 27 cases 68 pkgs unspecified liquors, 7 cases whisky, 167 pkgs tea, 30 pkgs tobacco, 6 cases and 37 pkgs wines.

OREGON
Business Directory!

THE UNDERSIGNED WILL COMMENCE SOLICITing for a

Business Directory of the State

OF OREGON in a few days; and, to make it successful, respectfully request the co-operation of all persons interested in the welfare of the country. The State has now reached that position when a yearly summary of her progress is necessary, hence the value of a work which will, in a condensed form,

COMBINE ALL MATTERS OF PUBLIC INTEREST.

The work in contemplation will embrace a

General Sketch of the State,

ITS PHYSICAL ASPECTS,
GEOLOGY,
CLIMATOLOGY,
BOTANY,
ZOOLOGY,
COMMERCE,
MANUFACTURES,
SOCIETIES,
PUBLIC BUILDINGS,
PRODUCTIONS,

And all other subjects on which information is required.

The work will be illustrated with sketches of some of the leading prominent scenery of the State, and its compilation will be under the charge of J. MORTIMER MURPHY, Esq., whose recent work on Washington Territory has been highly commended by the press and public.

THE BUSINESS DIRECTORY OF EACH TOWN AND CITY WILL BE COMPLETE;

And that, with sketches of each place, should make it invaluable to the Merchant, Farmer and Mechanic.

AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM, it will be THE BEST yet introduced in the State, as it will be of such importance that it will always be retained in a prominent position for reference.

THE RATE OF ADVERTISING will be as follows:

ONE PAGE	$30.
HALF PAGE	10.
CARD	5

Advertisers taking one page will receive a copy of the book gratis.

PRICE of work will be ....$3.50.

The book will be distributed on every route of travel and public place in the country.

Ordinance No. 1248.

AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING DEVIATION from the established plan of improving streets.

The City of Portland does ordain as follows

Section 1 The Committee on Streets and Public Property are hereby authorized in approving of applications for permits under the provisions of Ordinance No. 94, entitled an Ordinance in relation to the Improvement of Streets, to direct the City Surveyor, in setting stakes for plank roadways and crosswalks to cause the same to conform, as near as practicable, to the system of planking on Fourth street, and to vary the height of curbs for sidewalks so that the same may conform to the grade of the center of the street or as near thereto as they may deem expedient.

Passed the Common Council October 30th, 1872.

W S CALDWELL,
Auditor and Clerk.

Approved, Nov. 1st, 1872

PHILIP WASSERMAN,
Mayor.

Cor. of Washington and Second sts. Entrance on Second.

To Sufferers:

THE ABOVE ESTABLISHMENT HAS BEEN opened for the treatment of all Chronic and Private Diseases, in males as well as females, where all who are suffering from any of those dreadful ailments can find relief.

Young men having weakened and injured their constitutions by secret habits, need have no fear in calling and consulting me, as all communications are strictly confidential, and cure of a permanent cure where treatment is followed.

Special attention given to the treatment of stricture, and to all who are suffering from such, I can warrant a cure.

Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, Piles, Dropsy, Cancers, and all other ailments successfully treated.

To Ladies who are dragging out a life of misery, on account of debility, sterility, menstruation, and many other diseases peculiar to the sex, can find relief by calling.

The celebrated FEMALE REGULATOR PILLS sent free by mail to any address on receipt of $5 00 per box. Certain and safe in all cases.

Office consultation free of charge. All communications strictly confidential. Office hours, 11 A M to 4 P M., and 7 to 9 P M DR. C G GLASS

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of long standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the faces, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
